

RUTH HOVSEPIAN

SPEAKER * AUTHOR
* PODCAST HOST *

Growing up as a pastor's daughter under the watchful eye of a tight-knit family and church, Ruth lived under constant pressure to perform and meet expectations. Caving to the heavy burden, Ruth found herself divorced and a single mother of three young children. Ruth turned to alcohol, sex, and porn; a years-long cycle of abuse and addiction followed as Ruth searched for "love" and relief from the emptiness. With hope and joy destroyed, Ruth sunk into a reclusive, depressive state that seemingly had no way out.

Thankfully, God had a different plan! After years of defeated living, God led Ruth to sobriety and taught her how to place her identity in Him alone.

As a speaker, Ruth is dedicated to helping others find peace, joy, and fulfillment in life through Christ. With personal experience navigating the dark years of addiction and single parenthood, Ruth shares practical insights and faith-driven principles to inspire transformation and guide individuals on their spiritual journey, fostering a deeper connection with God and a more meaningful, joyous life.

The Voice of Joy (A Joyful Hope)

Joy is a gift from the Lord that we can all experience, even in challenging times. How can we be full of joy and remain hopeful amidst life's trials? By praying and seeking the true meaning of joy, we can discover the voice of joy in our lives. Though difficulties are part of our journey, when we surrender our worries and deepest pains to the Lord, He will restore our joy. This message inspires your women to live their lives with joy and finish strong, anchored in faith and hope.

The Hardwired Void We Carry: God doesn't remove the void. He fills it.

5 MOST FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Do you travel outside of Quebec and Canada?

A. I travel extensively throughout Canada and the United States. If the event is within a 6-hour drive, I will drive. For longer distances, I prefer to fly.

Q: Do you speak at multi-day events?

A. Yes! I am passionate about speaking at retreats and conferences. These multi-day events are the perfect opportunity to dig deeper and explore the truths of God's Word.

Q: How long are your talks?

A. My talks last approximately 55 minutes, but I am flexible with the duration and can present shorter or longer sessions or break them into multiple messages.

Q: Do you speak at smaller churches and events?

A. Absolutely! No church is too small or too big. Every invitation is a door opened by God, and I embrace each opportunity with the trust that God has a purpose and will achieve His plans regardless of the audience size.

Q: What is your speaking fee?

A. I take a flexible approach to speaking fees, working within your budget in addition to travel expenses.
